East Rounton is a township and chapelry, situated in the North Riding of Yorkshire, and district of Cleveland.

It is a modern as well as a model village, and extends along the north bank of the Wiske to the borders of West Rounton.

It is in the Cleveland division of the Riding, Stokesley union and county court district, the Archdeaconry of Cleveland and Diocese of York.

The lord of the manor of both East and West Rounton is Sir Hugh Bell, Baronet, who is also Lord-Lieutenant of the North Riding; his residence is Rounton Grange, about half a mile from the village. The estate of East Rounton was purchased by the late Sir Lowthian Bell, of the late John Wailes, Esq., in the year 1865.

The church dates from the thirteenth century, and was restored on the model of the ancient structure by the late Sir Lowthian Bell, under the direction of Robert J. Johnson, architect, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, in the year 1884, and consists of a chancel, nave, south porch, and a western turret containing one bell.

East Rounton was formerly a chapelry in the parish of Rudby-in-Cleveland, about four miles distant, the last incumbent being the Rev. John Johnson, who resigned it in the year 1912, and by an Order in Council, dated 11th October in that year, East and West Rounton were united as one parish, the patron being the Archbishop of York.

The Registers date from the year 1595, and embrace the parish of Rudby up to the year 1813, when each parish had its own separate register. The entries in the early Registers are in Latin. Baptisms, marriages, and burials are entered indiscriminately. There was no burial-ground enclosed until the year 1880; previous to that the funerals took place either at Hutton Rudby or at West Rounton.

The Society is indebted to Sir Hugh Bell for kindly giving a donation of £10 towards the cost of printing this Register.

The Index has been kindly prepared by Mr. John Charlesworth, of Horbury.

J. WHITEHEAD

J. WHITEHEAD AND SON, LEEDS AND LONDON.

P R E F A C E .

This volume contains the entries in the Weston Parish Registers extending from the year 1639 to the year 1812—including the transcripts from York, which have been copied by Mr. R. B. Cook.

The first book measures 8 by $13\frac{1}{4}$ inches, and contains $7\frac{1}{2}$ leaves of parchment. The entries are now very faint, and many of them illegible. Mr. G. D. Lumb rendered much assistance in the copying of this book.

The second book is $14\frac{1}{4}$ by 8 inches, bound in parchment with a metal clasp, and contains $16\frac{1}{2}$ leaves of parchment, one page blank, and many blank spaces throughout the book.

The third book, bound in skin, measures $14\frac{1}{4}$ by $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches. About one-third of the book has been used. The leaves are of paper. The entries from 1790 to 1812 are in different handwritings. This accounts for the varied spelling "Asquith" and "Askwith" on the same pages. These entries are recopied on subsequent pages, and additional information occasionally given, which has been incorporated in the print in square brackets.

The fourth book, which contains marriages only, is bound in stout cardboard, 11 by 17 inches, and contains printed forms filled in with the pen. About half the book is used.

Weston Church, situate at the back of the Hall, and within a short distance of the river Wharfe, is an interesting old edifice in the Norman and Early English styles, consisting of nave, chancel, south porch, and a western turret containing a bell. In the churchyard is an ancient sun dial, and the following is a copy of an inscription on one of the old tombs: "Hoaping for the riserection heare lieth the bodie of William Crooke, of Askwith, who departed this life Avgvst the 15, Anno Domini 1698, in the 71 yeare of his aidge."

Weston is two miles north-west of Otley, and the parish comprises, in addition to Weston, the village of Askwith, the small, peaceful hamlet of Snowden, and Dob Park. In 1811 the population of Weston was 128; that of Askwith, 306.

In Speight's Upper Wharfedale, (1900), there is a chapter on "The Parish of Weston" (pp. 163-171), in which much interesting information is given about the manorial history of Weston, the Norman church, and the Vavasour, Asquith, and Kendall families.

To the Rev. C. L. Tweedale, the Vicar, are due the thanks of the Society for permission to print and affording facilities for copying the registers.

REPORT FOR 1914.

THE Council of the Yorkshire Parish Register Society have the pleasure to present their Sixteenth Annual Report. The number of members on the roll is 183, a decrease of 7 compared with 1913.

During the year the second part of Halifax Register was issued to the members for 1912. The Registers of Garforth, Kildwick (Part I), Howden (Part IV), and Darrington have been issued to the members for 1913. Of the latter, Garforth has been presented, £15 6s. 2d. has been given towards Kildwick, and £8 18s. 6d. towards Darrington. For 1914, Harewood Register (Part I), which is being presented by Mr. William Brigg, is nearly ready, and will be the Fiftieth Volume issued by the Society. Rothwell Register is waiting for the Index, and Skipwith is ready for the printer. For 1915 St. Mary's, Bishophill Junior, is in the printer's hands, and it is hoped that Thornhill (Part III) and Thornton Watlass will be so shortly.

It is intended that the publications for 1916 shall be Easingwold, Rounton, and Kildwick.

The Registers of Aberford, Bilton near York, Brompton, Church Fenton, Crofton, Emley, Featherstone, Halsham, Hook, Hornby, Ilkley, Keighley, Kirby Ravensworth, Knaresborough, Saxton, Sowerby, near Thirsk, Wakefield, etc., either have been or are being copied. Donations have been promised towards the printing of Aberford, Batley, Crayke, Dewsbury, Easingwold, Husthwaite, Ilkley, Keighley, Kildwick, Rounton, Scarborough, Silkstone, and Snaith.

REPORT FOR 1915.

THE Council of the Yorkshire Parish Register Society have the pleasure to present their Seventeenth Annual Report. The number of members on the roll is 175, a decrease of 7 compared with 1914.

During the year the Register of Harewood (Part I) and Rothwell (Part III) have been issued to the members for 1914. The former Register was kindly presented by Mr. William Brigg, of London, a member of the Council. For 1915 the Register of St. Mary's, Bishophill Junior, and Thornhill (Part III) have been printed off as far as the index. Skipwith and Thornton Watlass are postponed. For 1916 Easingwold and Kildwick (Part II) are both in the hands of the printer, and Rounton will be so shortly. Twenty pounds has been given by Mr. J. B. Willans towards the cost of Easingwold; £10 has been promised by Sir Hugh Bell, Bart., towards the cost of Rounton; one quarter of the cost of Kildwick will be raised by Mr. W. A. Brigg.

It is intended that the publications for 1917 shall be Snaith, towards the cost of which 25 per cent. has been promised, and Sheffield, towards which it is believed that substantial assistance will be forthcoming locally.

The Registers of Aberford, Bilton, near York, Church Fenton, Crofton, Emley, Featherstone, Halsham, Hook, Hornby, Keighley, Kirby Ravensworth, Knaresborough, Saxton, Sowerby, near Thirsk, Wakefield, etc., either have been or are being copied.

A donation has been given towards the cost of printing Aberford, and promised towards Batley, Crayke, Dewsbury, Husthwaite, Keighley, Scarborough, and Silkstone.

The Council regret that the Society has lost two members by death during the year, namely, Mr. G. E. Weddell, an active member of the Council, who transcribed Howden and other Registers, and Mr. Lothrop Withington, who was drowned in the Lusitania disaster.

In this time of stress the Council appeals for members from descendants of Yorkshire families now in the British dominions beyond the seas, and in the American States, feeling that the publication of Registers materially assists in preserving their ancestral connexion with the Homeland, and kindly memories for the county where their forefathers lived and died.

THE Council of the Society have the pleasure to present their Eighteenth Annual Report. The number of members on the roll is 166, a decrease of 11 compared with 1915.

During the year the Register of St. Mary, Bishophill Junior, and Thornhill (Part III) have been issued to the members for 1915. For 1916 Easingwold, Kildwick (Part II), Weston, near Otley, and Rounton are in an advanced state of printing. Mr. Legh Tolson has promised £15 towards the cost of printing Weston, and has given £5 towards the cost of copying the Weston transcripts at York. The publications for 1917 are a volume of Sheffield Registers, which will be issued at the joint expense of this Society and the Hunter Archæological Society, and a volume of Snaith Registers, towards the cost of which 25 per cent. is given locally ; also the Register of Kilburn, towards the cost of which Mr. W. T. Lancaster has promised £10. It is intended that the publications for 1918 shall be a second volume of Sheffield Registers, to be issued jointly with the Hunter Society, and the Register of Richmond or Crofton.

The Registers of Aberford, Bilton, near York, Church Fenton, Crofton, Emley, Featherstone, Keighley, Knaresborough, Kirby Ravensworth, Saxton, Sowerby, near Thirsk, Wakefield, etc., either have been or are being copied.

The Council regret that the Society has lost four members by death during the year, namely, Mr. J. B. Kay, the Rev. John Newman, Mr. J. G. Ronksley, and the Rev. Canon W. R. Wilson.

If it were not for the donations which have been so kindly promised, the issue of Registers could not be maintained to the extent it has been, and the Council hope that further offers of donations may be forthcoming.
